Amy,

Every single one of us will have our lives touched by cancer — that's why the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network (ACS CAN) community works tirelessly to pass laws and policies that bring us closer to ending cancer as we know it. We succeed when people commit to this effort. That's why your recent action is so important.

You are now a part of this community as an ACS CAN volunteer. Together with other volunteers from every corner of this country, you are helping support people impacted by cancer, implement strategies to prevent the disease and find new cures.

Our strength comes from the passion and dedication of volunteers like you. Each one of us has the power to make a difference, and every volunteer comes to this movement with our own experiences and priorities. Will you take a moment to tell us which issues matter most to you, and how you'd like to make an impact?

This quick survey will help ensure you don't miss the next opportunity to lend your voice to this lifesaving fight.

Thank you for adding your voice, sharing your strength, and doing your part. Together, we can save more lives from cancer.

Good Morning Elizabeth,

I hope you are well! I apologize for the delay in getting ACS CAN items to you- the start of the year is always so busy here at the Cancer Action Network.

I have confirmation letters for you and Amy from your attendance at the Arkansas Policy Forum attached. As for proof of membership, we always recommend using the receipt of donation, as anyone who donates a minimum of $10 is an ACS CAN member. If you are still in need of a more official document, please let me know and I can see if one can be created.

Elizabeth

Thank you.

On behalf of every patient, survivor and loved one impacted by cancer, I want to thank you for your support of our lifesaving work.

Your gift will not only help improve the lives of the estimated nearly 17 million cancer survivors in the United States, but will help prevent so many other people from ever having a direct experience with this disease.

ACS CAN empowers our advocates to make an extraordinary impact in the fight against cancer by making their voices heard. Our volunteers and staff engage directly with lawmakers and other elected officials, nationwide, to ensure they know the critical role that public policy plays in saving lives and preventing cancer. The donation you made today and future gifts are so important to helping us accomplish this lifesaving work.

Once again, thank you for your very generous support of our mission, and for all you do in the fight against cancer.

Sincerely,

Lisa A. Lacasse
President
