Hi there,

Do you know where we are in the triage door process? We made a lot of progress and things were approved and now at a standstill.

Renee,

You have the most impeccable timing. I queried Clay about this late yesterday afternoon. He said that the Arkansas Glass company is waiting on some parts that were not in the original order and will be a few more weeks out before they arrive. I do not have a precise timeline and that would be a Clay or David inquiry. I know that AlarmCO, our Door Access Control (DAC) vendor, has all of the parts in and is waiting on the doors to be installed as well.

Thank you,
